Driving Unimpaired Classes

2016

Alcohol & Drug Dependency Services

All OWI offenders must complete a Substance abuse evaluation and complete all recommendations. They must also attend the 12 hour class for Driving Unimpaired.

Registration for the class can be completed at any ADDS office. The cost of the class is $115.00. This fee is non-refundable and non-transferable. The entire $115.00 fee is due at the time of registration. You may register up to noon the day of the class (if evening class) or by 5 pm the day before class (if Sat./Sun. class).

Participants will receive a minimum of a 30 minute lunch break when attending a class that is longer than 4 hours. Participants may bring snacks and non-alcoholic beverages.

Class size is limited to 12 people and classes are filled on a first to pay basis. There are no walk-in registrations or payment at the class.

All participants who successfully complete the 12 hour class will receive a certificate of completion at the end. Notification of completion will be sent to DOT and to any other referral source as requested by the class participant. Release forms will be distributed and filled out during class.

Participants should not come to class under the influence of alcohol or other drugs. All class participants are subject to alcohol and drug testing at the discretion of the course instructor.

Participants found to be under the influence will be asked to leave and will forfeit their class fee.

Participants with a Breath Alcohol Level above a .000 will be asked to leave and will forfeit their class fee.

Class participants are expected to be on time. There will be no late admittance into the course.

ADDS is a Tobacco Free/Nicotine Free Business. Smoking and use of any Nicotine Product (except Nicotine Replacement Therapy Products) is prohibited on ADDS property.

For more information on the Driving Unimpaired Class, contact any of the offices listed on the back of this brochure.
